Welcome to this week's newsletter...

Firstly, a huge thank you to everyone who came along last Friday to our Summer Festival. It was a brilliant family event, with everyone having fun in the sun. The PTFA raised a substantial sum which they are donating to be spent on unplugged resources such as drones and also a picnic bench for outside use. Many thanks to Miss Egan, Miss Dugdale and the PTFA for organising the day and also to our many parents who helped out – Mr and Mrs Ali, Mr Griffiths, Mrs McGurk and Mrs Patel for the BBQ, Mrs Blanche and her lovely helpers for the festival face painting, Mr Griffiths Junior for entertaining us, Mrs Benn and Mrs Lowe for tea and coffee and all the staff and PTFA Volunteers for manning the stalls. We are lucky to have such supportive staff and parents – thank you.

Year 6 enjoyed their treat trip to Harry Potter Studios on Monday – it was a long day, but hopefully a memorable one. Again, thanks to the staff who make these events possible by accompanying them. On Tuesday, myself and Mr Lenge went down to London with 6 children for the Child Net final and we came 2nd which is a marvellous achievement. Look out for our film on the BBC Own It website – coming soon.

Many of year 6 have had their transition days this week and it is good to hear how they have been getting on.

Belthorn Baby Bells Parent and Toddler group will finish for the summer holidays on Friday 19th July. Thank you to all the parents who have been coming along and also for spreading the word. We will resume in September.

Vacancies

We currently have two vacancies in school – please see the school website for more details.

And finally.....

Our wonderful Mrs Banyard will be retiring at the end of this term after 32 years at the school. I am sure you will agree that she will be very much missed. My most sincere thanks goes to Mrs Banyard for everything she has done for the school and all her support not just of me, but of all the staff here. If you would like to write a message to Mrs Banyard, there will be a card in the Reception area to sign next week. Thank you.

Have a good weekend

Mrs Rowan and all the Belthorn staff
