Welcome to this week's newsletter...

Once again, it has been a busy week here at Belthorn. Huge congratulations to the resilient 15 children, who braved the weather, for our Walk On Wednesday. After half term there is one Walk On Wednesday left so we hope to see as many of you there as possible.

Wednesday was also a very special day for another reason- World Food Day- We celebrated the occasion in style this week! As well as many activities throughout the day, 26 of our wonderful parents came to join us to share a very tasty lunch with their children. The menu was a Roast Dinner with all the trimmings and Apple Crumble- all locally sourced goods. A special thank you to Mrs McGurk and her team for all their efforts and for staying behind to clean up after us!

This week you should have received a 'Spooky' letter from the PTFA, with a list of detailed upcoming events, including our Pumpkin Competition, Halloween Disco and our Spooktacular Hot Chocolate and Toffee Apple morning.

Year 6 had a Banksy inspired art day on Thursday. They got to use spray paint and came up with a design based on the school and the village. The children all thoroughly enjoyed the day, Mr Furness did look a little stressed, and the final piece is very good indeed. So good in fact, that it is proudly displayed in the hallway now.

Our new trial Parents Evening took place on Thursday. The parents came in, had a look at the books, saw the work that was going on in classroom as well as trying our new LBQ maths software in upper KS2. Our next parents evening will be individual slots, this will give you a chance to get an in depth look at your child's progress. A reminder to those parents with children in year 3 that your parents evening is Tuesday 29th and Wednesday 30th October.

Thursday also saw the first of Reception & Little Bells stay and play sessions. What a great turn out as always and it looked like all had a fantastic time.

It has been a wonderful first half term back at school and I hope everyone comes back refreshed and ready to do it all again on Tuesday 29th October.

Wishing everyone a wonderful break,
Mrs Rowan and all the Belthorn staff.
