Welcome to this week's newsletter...

The end of another half term and we are now half way through the academic year; it is flying by. Most classes have completed end of term assessments this week and the results help to inform teaching in the next half term.

Parent's evening will take place on Thursday 5th March and this will be a chance to find out exactly how your child is progressing and how you can support them at home.

We are marking World Book Day on Friday 6th March. This year we would really like it if children came as a character from their class novels in Years 3-6. Reception and Little Bells can come with their favourite bedtime story and wear their PJ's, Years 1 and 2 can come as their favourite Disney story character. Year 3 and 4 class novels have an Egyptian theme, Year 5 class novel is Street Child which is set in the Victorian Era and Year 6 class novel is Hard Times which is also set in the Victorian era.

The local Rotary Club has been in touch asking for our support. We are asking that on World Book Day each child brings in a book from home which they have read which they can donate to a school in The Gambia. We think this is a really worthwhile cause and would appreciate any old books which you think another child might love to read. The books will be collected from school on Monday 9th March.

Attendance Award

Also on World Book day, we are inviting parents of children in Reception, Year 1 and Year 2 to come into school at 2.45pm to read a story to their children. Come along to the main entrance at 2.45pm and we will set the hall up as a reading space for you to enjoy sharing books with your child/ren.

And finally

There will be no Good Work Assembly on the first Friday back (Friday 28th February). We will be busy being observed teaching science by a school advisor.

Year 2 parents however are invited to come into school on this day for another maths lesson – this time the focus will be on how we teach calculations so it will be a really worthwhile session if you can make it. The lesson will be from 9am – 10am.

Gift shop will take place as normal on the 28th but we might swap the timing to the afternoon.

Wishing everyone a good half term.

Mrs Rowan and all the Belthorn staff.
