Welcome to this week's newsletter...

Last week ended on a real high with an advisory teacher visit. The purpose of the visit was a 'Deep Dive' in Science. This is new Ofsted procedure and so we asked for a 'trial'. The advisor commented on outstanding behaviour and teaching in science, so we were all obviously very proud. We will now work towards putting any advice into practise and apply this to all curricular areas.

This week has been another busy one with lots going on. Monday night was the Year 3 Singing Together event at King George's Hall. As always, this was a brilliant evening with the children singing and dancing with lots of enthusiasm. Thank you to Year 3 parents for coming along to support us at the event. We hoped you enjoyed it.

It has been nice to see a respite from the wind and rain and the children were able to get outside to do some learning at the end of the week.

Today we have focused on World Book Day activities and the children looked brilliant dressed in their book themed outfits. Thank you to parents for your support with this – we know it is not always easy to find suitable costumes. Thank you also to the KS1 parents who came along to support us at stay and read this afternoon. It is always lovely to see you reading with your children.

Easter Bingo

The PTFA are organising an Easter themed Bingo night.

This will take place on Thursday 2nd April from 5.30pm – 7.30pm. Tickets will be on sale for £5 per person which includes a pie and pea supper.

Mrs Brown on Reception will be selling tickets soon – a text message will be sent out when they are ready.

Attendance Award

A non-school uniform day on Friday 27th March in return for Easter eggs – large and small will take place to help us with this.

We had a punctuality Hot Spot day on Thursday this week. Well done to everyone who arrived on time to get a raffle ticket and congratulations to our winners of the raffle – Lewis White in KS1 and Lucas Gallagher in KS2. The next Hot Spot day could be sooner than you think, so make sure you are here before 8.55am to be in with a chance.

The next Baby Bells play group will take place on Friday 27th March from 1pm – 3pm. The theme for this one will be spring time.

And finally.....

Thank you to all those who attended parent's evening last night. Unfortunately, due to traffic issues we are aware that several parents were unable to attend as planned. We will do our best to accommodate you if you contact school and speak to your child's class teacher.

Have a wonderful weekend

Mrs Rowan and all the Belthorn Staff
