★ Year 6 – Ava

Welcome to this week's newsletter...

The big news of today is that we have collected over a whopping £300 for red nose day. The final total will be sent out via text next week. Well done to Dominic and Ahad who raised a huge amount with their sponsored walk. We are so proud of you. Thank you to everyone who has supported us with this. We all enjoyed cheering them on when they arrived back at school.

Thankyou also to Mrs McGurk for making 400 biscuits to sell. They were some left over, so we have sent them down to the Dog Inn for sale over the weekend.

In other news this week, it has been great weather, so we have made the most of our beautiful school grounds and there has been science, PE, literacy and numeracy all going on outside.

Accrington Stanley came in on Monday and Tuesday this week. Year 5 are working with them for 5 weeks on a Move and Learn project. This is all about healthy lifestyles – so diet and exercise. Reception and Year 1 have enjoyed learning new skills with them as part of PE sessions on Tuesday afternoons. Year 5 – please make sure you bring trainers in on Mondays for this.

With just one more week until the Easter Holiday we are ramping up a little. Pupil Progress meetings with teachers and Miss Egan will take place next week. This is so the Senior Leadership of the school can take a look at where children are in terms of academic work and also how classes have settled back in after being at home for so long. Interventions have already started, but our discussions will focus on our next steps.

Attendance Award

I have managed to get outside most mornings this week, and it is largely quite orderly, but there does seem to be a mad 5 minutes every day when it is 'grid lock'. Please help with this by parking away from the Zigzags and yellow lines. We have asked all our school deliveries to avoid the 8.30am – 9am times to also help with this. Please don't arrive too early, as this takes up a parking slot for others. I know it is a continuing issue outside all schools, and I thank you for your patience and understanding with this.

The class Blogs are back- yes I hear you all shout. Please read your child's class blog. All the class teachers put an effort into keeping you updated about the week's learning and what might be happening in coming weeks, so please have a read. Blogs can be found by going to the website and clicking on the news tab. It is very easy to find.

And finally.....

Please take part in our decorated egg competition – I know we have lots of creative families out there. In previous years we have loved seeing your humours twists on egg characters, so please send your competition eggs in next Friday for a chance to win an Easter egg. See the flyer sent out earlier in the week via email. It is also posted on some of the windows in school.

Have a lovely weekend,

Mrs Rowan and all the Belthorn staff.
