

Little Bells Newsletter

Friday 25th March 2022

This week in Little bells we have had lots of fun learning about our families and having lots of fun in the sun!

We have made sure that we could be outside at every opportunity this week as we took the provisions outside and played in the sun! We even had some of our carpet sessions outside in the sun!

Please be sure to put sun-cream on your children before coming to pre-school. If you have any concerns or questions please message me on Showbie!

Phonics:

In Phonics we have continued our learning with oral segmenting and blending, trying to fully develop this skill.

We have used our Robot friend, Robbie, to help us to oral blend and segment.

This has been lots of fun as after we have segmenting the word, we posted it in his mouth!

Next week we are going to continue this with some trickier words.

Maths:

In Maths we have been looking at simple ABAB patterns. We went outside to created patterns such as leaf, stick, leaf, stick and continued this as a repeating pattern.

We also completed an adult led activity where the children chose their own coloured flowers and out them in a pattern.

Next week we are looking at errors in patterns, and how to correct them.

Topic:

Our question for this term is –

‘What makes the world around us?’

For our topic work this week, we looked at families; what is a family, who is in our family?

We looked at the pictures that parents sent in of their family and had the children explain their relationship with each person. This was lots of fun and we really enjoyed getting to know the children’s family.

Next week we are looking at Easter.
